

NISAN - APRIL 5781

TBT CHALLIGHTS

SO, NU

THE PREZ SEZ... Deb Nowinski

NISAN is the first month of our Jewish calendar year. It ushers in Spring/Passover.

And nothing in Texas says, "Spring!" like our beautiful blue bonnets. As we were gifted with freedom from slavery, nature frees itself from its wintry claws and ushers in new life: renewed with hope I hope you can get out and enjoy what our Lady Bird Johnson has given us as we travel the highways and byways and backroads of our beautiful State.

BOOK CLUB

Jeanne Sheinberg for Sisterhood

Our next book is not a novel. It is written by Margaret MacMillan- a Canadian historian and professor at the University of Oxford. She is an expert in history and international Relations. She has written many books. The book we are reading is-“War: How Conflict Shaped Us”

Quoted from a review: “her richly eclectic discussion of how culture and society have been molded by warfare throughout history. It is not a long book, only 272 pages of text, but it’s as colorful and tightly woven as a Persian carpet, showing us not just the many ways that men and women make war, but how war makes women and men.

MacMillan writes with enormous ease, and practically every page of this book is interesting, even entertaining. The greatest pleasures of this book are the historical anecdotes, moments and quotations that MacMillan marshals on nearly every page to illustrate her points. They are bold, arresting and various, and they make the book come alive. “ This book looks like a very worthwhile read and I imagine a great discussion. I hope to see you all on Sunday April 11 @ 1230 on zoom.

Jeanne Quote- “I miss the 90’s when no one knew what kale was.”
