THE CHANUKAH EDITION

This Chailights will celebrate in pictures our wonderful Chanukah celebration last weekend, December 3rd-6th 2021.

IF you were at the service, either on zoom or in person, we really had a wonderful time celebrating our freedom over the Syrians so many many many years ago. As was stated by Rabbi Federow in a wonderful article in the Galveston Daily News "this was the first war fought not over resources or land, but ideology." Also, if you can check out this very article on what our president, Joe Wallack spoke about: the light carrying us through our dark times. Well said!

Special thanks to our ISJL leader, Sophie Bernstein and our musical Myrna Reingold who led us in song, prayers and a bit of history on lighting our menorah (everyone had an opinion back in the day!). And to Jill Macgregor who does a super job with our religious school program.

ALSO...much heart felt thanks to those who donated to our FOOD DRIVE. We will keep the box there until the end of December. I will give it one more week. But, what a beautiful mitzvot....THANK YOU SO MUCH.

ENJOY OUR PICTURES.

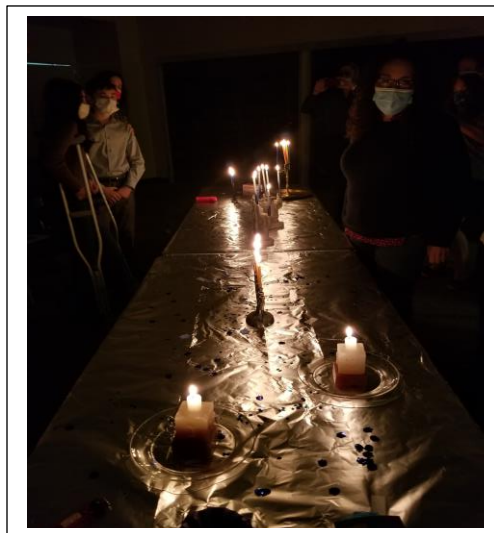

Sophie Bernstein and Myrna Reingold led our Chanukah service!

Thanks to Mardy and Nancy for manning the ZOOM. Myrna is here helping set up before services.

Jill and Julia Macgregor light our Shabbat candles.

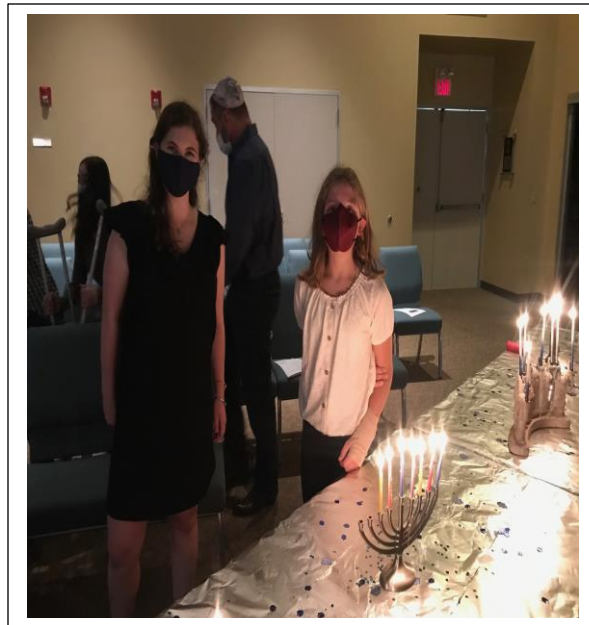

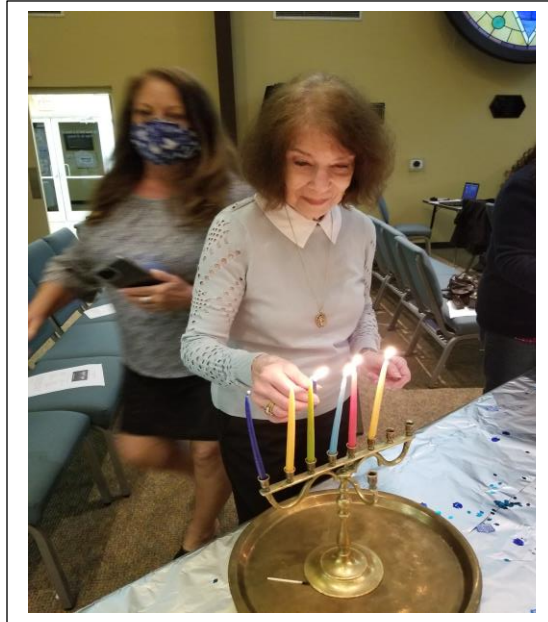

Our Menorahs shone brightly

Myrna created lovely gelt bags for all
