Thanks to Annie Wallach for her wonderful lyrics sung to 'TOMORROW' from the show, "Annie." It certainly captures where we are as we begin 2022!

Bet your bottom dollar that tomorrow

There'll be sneezing

Just thinkin' about tomorrow

Takes away the hugging and the singing

'Til there's none

When I'm stuck in isolation that's gray and lonely

I just stick out my finger and type, and say, wow

Amazon'll come out tomorrow

So you gotta hang on 'til tomorrow

Come what may

Tomorrow, tomorrow

I love ya tomorrow

You're only a Door Dash away

When I'm stuck with decor that's gray and lonely

I just stick out my remote, and say, oh

The new streaming come out tomorrow

So you gotta hang on 'til tomorrow

Come what may

Tomorrow, tomorrow

There's a booster tomorrow

You're always a day away

Tomorrow, tomorrow

I'll Zoom ya tomorrow

You're only a lap away.

Annie on the bema as she sings her original lyrics from the song
"Tomorrow." Many thanks to Annie!

Happy Secular New Year!

Deb Nowinski -Communications
denowinski@gmail.com

I hope you had a wonderful start of 2022. I know it's been a tough couple of years, but we must never give up the light of hope.

Due to this malefic insidious plague upon us, we will continue to have our services on ZOOM. We are doing this to protect us all. So many of us know people who have gotten Covid and some sadly, passed. I must keep remembering my mother's words "this too shall pass." But, in the meantime, let's stay safe.

Many thanks to Myrna for steering the ship and we have a wonderful guest this weekend – our very own French Horn player, JULIAN COHEN will be back Friday and Saturday: what a gift! Let's all come together and start the year out thanking G-d and visualizing a better healthier prosperous year.

Need some resolution suggestions that you don't have to worry about any calories or carbs? Work on the inside: more positive, more giving, more grateful, more patient (yes, imagine!), count the blessings. The smile you give someone once a day, may be a life saver to someone.

So, I'll leave you with 2 funny Jewish jokes:

Patient: I have a ringing in my ears. Doctor: Don't answer.

The Doctor called Mrs. Cohen saying, 'Mrs. Cohen, your check came back. Mrs. Cohen answered, 'So did my arthritis!'

I hope I made you smile. See you on the Zoom

Happy New Year to all. Now we have 2022 to look forward to and we need to keep positive. I think the next book will show us how to overcome! This book was on our book list before, but never read. title is "Manhattan Beach" by Jennifer Egan. It was a NY Times best seller in 2017. "A magnificent achievement ...at once suspenseful noir intrigue and a transporting work of lyrical beauty and emotional heft."--

Review from the Boston Globe. "It is an historical novel about the first female deep-sea diver at the Brooklyn Navy Yard during WW 11. It is not a short book-about 400 pages- but I found it a page turner." To give you time to read the book we can have the meeting Sunday Jan 23rd at the TBT library—12:30 pm. Please bring your Lunch. I am also requesting you e-mail to me some suggestion for future books.

Our Dec meeting was a success- and special, thanks to Carol Zucker for hosting us at her beautiful home.
