High Holy Day (HHD) admission is provided at no additional fee for TBT members in good standing. However, a complete HHD reservation form is required to assist in seating calculation from all participants. Check-in will be at door.

Non Members pay for one fee for all services no matter how many are attended.

For NONMEMBERS Tickets are a package: ☐ $300/family ☐ $150/individual

Visiting family members, those affiliated with other Congregations, full-time college students, and active-duty military are invited at no fee....Donations are customary.

5786 Book of Remembrance - Please complete the Remembrance portion to have your loved one's name(s) read aloud during the Yiskor Service on Yom Kippur afternoon. A donation to Temple Beth Tikvah for inclusion of your loved ones in our Book of Remembrance is traditional and appreciated for our growing congregation. You may also consider adding your loved one to TBT's Yahrtzeit Memorial Board with a $300 donation.

Name of Deceased (please asterisk * the names of those who have passed since September 2024)

If you would like to include a memory of your family member, please attach an additional sheet with the one or two line memory to share. For example: "I remember, the aromas of Bubbe's kitchen filled with delicious flavors." OR "My father's hands were rough and strong as he delicately held my child-sized hand." Please be sure to note which quote goes to which family member
